Mr. Neill came to Murray to conduct two sessions on Instructional Television for the Murray City Schools' faculty in-service program. Mr. Neill has been in classroom teaching in grades 3-8 for 6 years incorporating teaching with Educational Television. For the past 3 years, he has been a television studio teacher in Santa Ana, California. He is now the Assistant Director of Education for the Kentucky Authority for Educational Television in Lexington.

Czechs Stage One Hour Strike Against Soviets

By JAMES O. JACKSON

PRAGUE (UPI) — Czechoslovaks today staged a one-hour general strike which stopped Prague and filled it with the sound of tooting horns in protest against the Soviet occupation.

As the strike got underway, a Free Czech Radio broadcast said Cestmir Cisar, one of the liberal bloc under Communist Party First Secretary Alexander Dubcek, had escaped from Soviet captivity and was hiding somewhere in Czechoslovakia.

Dubcek apparently remained in Russian "internment." Clandestine radios reported similar work stoppages in other sections of the country.

President Ludvik Svoboda flew off to Moscow with a delegation of both pro and anti-Dubcek officials for conferences with Kremlin rulers, promising to return tonight to report to the nation.

The strike and the dramatic flight to Svoboda to discuss his country's plight face-to-face with Soviet Premier Alexei Kosygin and Party Chairman Leonid Brezhnev swung the country away from the violence that has marked the four-day-old military occupation.

Prague was quiet today, no shootings were reported elsewhere.

The Czechoslovak response to the general strike call in this capital city was amazing.

This correspondent stepped into the street at the stroke of noon, 7 a. m. (EDT). A truck sailing along at the good clip screeched to a halt as the driver slammed on the brakes.

At the same time, drivers clamped down on their horns, burglar alarms were set off and people made as much noise as possible.

The entire city stopped — not a bus, trolley or vehicle moved. A few people continued walking but most stopped in their tracks.

Rail workers stopped a train carrying Russian supplies. Between 5,000 and 10,000 persons were in Wenceslas Square, where youths had battled Soviet tanks with fiery wads of paper and other improvised weapons Wednesday. But almost everyone left the square when the horns began to blare and the bells rang and the sirens wailed.

The evacuation from the square was designed in advance to avoid any possible incident that would give the Soviet forces an excuse to open fire and provide Moscow with propaganda that there were disorders in Prague.

Most Czechoslovaks were surprised to hear of Svoboda's mission to Moscow. People expressed some hope that the crisis would be resolved.

But the hopes were dashed by reports from clandestine radios and along the Prague grapevine.

Wide Area Of Discussion Is Held By City Council Last Night In Regular Session

Paving Contract Is Let By State

FRANKFORT, Ky. — A contract for $99,751.40 for a group of bituminous concrete surfacing projects in Calloway County has been awarded to Ashland Oil and Refining Company (Warren Bros. Company Division), Gilbertsville, by the Department of Highways, Governor Louie B. Nunn and Commissioner of Highways William B. Hazelrigg announced today.

The group includes 2.8 miles of the Squire Radford Road, 1.4 miles of the Klen' Spur Road, 2.0 miles of the Garland Neal Road, and 2.0 miles of the Poor Farm Road.

A wide range of city business was under discussion last night by the Murray City Council.

A group of residents of Olive Boulevard were in attendance with Dr. Hugh Oakley as the spokesman. The group presented a petition on behalf of the residents of Olive Boulevard between 13th Street and 14th Street, asking that parking be prohibited on the boulevard from 7:00 a. m. to 5:00 p. m. Monday through Saturday.

The petition brought out the point that automobiles are now using the outside of the boulevard as parking space and that many times cars pull off the boulevard onto the grass strip between the curb and the sidewalk. This presents a danger to children in the area, the petition said and also presented a fire fighting hazard. The petition stated that residents have attempted to beautify the boulevard and that indiscriminate parking of automobiles has added to the problem of beautification.

Parking is now permitted on the outside of the boulevard, but not on the inside.

The problem was turned over to Mayor Ellis, the Street and Police committee for a recommendation to the council.

Only one tire bid was received on a set of four tires for the Police Department. Carroll Tire Service bid $75.00 on the tires, mounted and balanced. The council voted to give the business to this firm.

Councilman Buddy Hewitt, Chairman of the Special Problems Committee reported on a request of downtown merchants to have a promotional venture on the south side of the court square in October. He reported a conference with some downtown merchants with the following solution. A fee will be posted to cover possible damage to streets, a $10.00 per day license will be paid, an agreed on sum to cover use of parking meters will be paid and a garbage disposal fee will be paid if necessary. The promotion involves setting up kiddie rides on the south side of the court square for the period of one week.

Hewitt moved that the promotion be approved and the council approved the motion.

Mayor Ellis reported street paving underway with Audobon Drive near Keenland completed. Meadowlawn has been paved where the large steel pipe was installed and also about 500 feet on Meadowlawn has been repaved. Broad is complete and 10th Extended (north of Chest-

Police Chief Reports 202 Arrests In Month Of July

A large water line must be installed from the hospital to near North Fourth Street to handle proposed expansion of the hospital.

Apartment buildings are also giving some cause of concern to the system since a concentrated use of both water and sewerage is brought about by the high density population.

These are problems which the system is now studying Vaughn said.

He reported a total installation of 3389 water meters in the city. For the past five years meter installations have been as follows: 1964—132 meters; 1965 — 180; 1966—249; 1967—139 and thus far in 1968, 163.

Joe Lassater and Howard Komen were visitors at the meeting last night.

A building for the Sanitation System has been completed on US 641 North. The council approved purchase of a desk, chair, filing cabinet and air conditioner for the building. Rex Billington is Superintendent of the system.

New street or traffic signs will be installed in the university area. A street light will be installed on the Coldwater Road at Dodson Street.

Ordinance 484, a special riot control ordinance was passed on the second reading.

The Planning Commission has completed a new comprehensive zoning ordinance. It will be submitted to the council for consideration with public hearings being planned.

The State Highway Department will apply a cold mix to Glendale Road. A difficult situation has arisen on this road with tar and oil rising to the surface during hot weather.

James Thurmond, City Treasurer, submitted his resignation effective September 30.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

"Charity" for Aunt Jane?

Arthur took a trip out West to visit his ailing Aunt Jane. Next time he filed an income tax return, he deducted the cost of the trip as a "charitable contribution." Challenged by the government, he offered this explanation in court:

"I made that visit out of the goodness of my heart, to cheer up a sick old lady. I call that charity."

But whatever Arthur called it, the court held it was not charity—at least, not in the sense meant by the income tax laws.

Deduction of charitable contributions (up to a certain limit) has been allowed almost since the income tax began. The idea is that when you make such a contribution, you are not only being generos but also easing burdens that would otherwise fall upon the government.

Therefore, to qualify as charitable, your contribution must be of some public benefit—not just a favor to a particular individual. Usually this means giving to one of the organizations on an approved list, issued periodically by the government.

Typical of approved organizations are the Salvation Army, Community Chest, or Red Cross. But there are plenty of other worthy causes that will qualify.

Thus, a donation to an association for the benefit of American Indians was held deductible. So was a donation to an exchange set up for selling needlework done by deserving women.

However, your contribution won't be deductible if the organization merely "sounds" charitable but isn't really.

In one case a taxpayer tried to deduct his gift to a certain church. But it turned out that this particular church was occupied less with saving souls than with running businesses. The court thereupon denied the deduction.

A gift may also be held non-deductible if the organization is substantially involved in trying to influence legislation. For by allowing such a deduction, the government—in effect—could be subsidizing one side or the other of a political issue.

What about a gift to the federal government itself? If given for a public purpose, the gift would indeed be deductible. Obviously, if you donate money to the federal treasury, you are easing Uncle Sam's burdens.

Today is Friday, Aug. 23, the 236th day of 1968 with 130 to follow.

The moon is new.

The morning star is Saturn.

The evening star is Venus.

On this day in history:

In 1630, for the first time in America, legislation controlling labor was passed in the Massachusetts Bay Colony.

In 1924, Mrs. Miriam "Ma" Ferguson became the first Democratic nominee for the governorship of Texas. She won and became the first woman to serve as a governor.

In 1926, hundreds of thousands of women mourned the death of movie idol Rudolph Valentino.

In 1965, at least 45 persons were drowned when a motor launch capsized off the Philippines.

A thought for the day: Demosthenes said, "Every advantage in the past is judged in the light of the final issue."

The battleship Texas was the first vessel to have an airplane launched from its decks.

TESTING FURNITURE may not seem to make as much sense as test-driving a car, but the fact is you can learn a lot about furniture that interests you by "testing" it.

Don't be afraid to sit in a chair or sofa. Make sure it's comfortable for you and your build. Different size people adapt better to different size chairs. Push the piece around, if it's small enough you may have to move it in your home.

You don't have to be an upholstering expert to examine the tailoring of upholstered pieces. Fabrics should fit neatly and have a carefully tailored appearance. If you're looking at pieces with doors or drawers, open and close them. Drawers should be made well and they should slide easily. Doors shouldn't stick. Wood finishes should be smooth and even. Examine the hardware, too, for quality and good looks.

When you're exhausted what you can think of to inspect, ask questions. Ask about the materials used in upholstered pieces, the dirt-shedding abilities of the fabric, color choice, and so on. You'll find us always pleased to answer any of your questions. Finding the answers to your needs in home furnishing is our business. Come in and ask away.

A wedding gift of enamelware in the colors of orange and yellow was presented to the honoree by the hostesses.

Covers were laid for Miss Clark, Mrs. Charles D. Clark, Mrs. Edward M. West, Sr., Mrs. Owen West, Mrs. Virgie Clark, Mrs. William Smith, Mrs. Dick Johnson, Miss Lynn Johnson, Mrs. William Arms, Miss Linda Arms, Mrs. Gingles Wallis, Mrs. Charles Tuttle, and the hostesses.

You Might Say— House is Treed

EUGENE, Ore. (UPI)—Gordon and Wanda Clark like to tell new visitors, "You can't see the house for the trees. If you get lost give us a call."

They have been collecting trees for more than 30 years and their three and one half acre plot, "our own private arboretum," contains 115 species.

One visitor said it is like an international forest. There are Chinese Cherry holly, Spanish Cork oak, rare redwoods, Digger-pine and Oregon myrtle.

"The thing that really got me started on this hobby was the Monkey Puzzle tree," Clark said. "Nobody could tell me what it was."

Mrs. Clark shares her husband's hobby but prefers to leave the technicalities (climate, rainfall, soil conditions) to him.

She also studies and collects wild flowers and to secure one rare species, "I had to hang over the edge of a cliff."

When a visitor strolls through the arboretum — not open to the public — Clark introduces the Sitka spruce.

"Shake hands with one of the branches," he says. "That way you'll always remember the tree."

To "air condition" the decorative scheme of a room, hang white monk's cloth panels from ceiling to floor across the entire width of one wall. These panels can be put into the washer and dryer a few at a time for easy laundering.

If you plan a caulking spree to protect your home against moisture, hear this — all new wood surfaces must be primed with linseed oil or varnish before caulking will adhere effectively. Let dry fully before the filler is applied.

WRINKLES

by Marie Davant

NEW YORK:—Chemical science has found a white substance made with quicksilver that works wonders on wrinkled, roughened face and hands. Use it one time and it is entirely possible you will see improvement next morning. In a few days-dry skin wrinkles start to vanish. Many of the small ones around the eyes and mouth have already disappeared. But that is not all!

"Old-Age" (weathered) brown spots on hands and arms—brown "age" darkness on surface of face and neck fades away! Rich oils lubricate pores so blackheads can slip out without squeezing. Surface pimples and blemishes and scars, outwardly caused, dry up or become less noticeable! But don't take my word for it. Make a 6-day test without raking one penny. Just get a jar of Peacock's Imperial Creme at your favorite department or drug store. Use this thrilling cream for 6 days—satisfaction guaranteed by The Mitchum Company or return unused portion to retailer for full refund. No questions asked. Peacock's Imperial Creme can work wonders for wrinkles, lines, brown spots and other weathered blemishes. You may obtain Imperial Creme for $2.00 at Holland Drug. Clip this out.

Pistol Match Results

Local pistol teams came out in fine style last Saturday in the match held at the pistol range, north of town.

The Murray State University Security Team came in second, in a field of six. They shot a total of 3435 out of a possible 4000 points. Hoyte Wilson led the pack with a 914 out of a possible 1,000, and Col. Lance E. Booth took third place in the individuals with a total of 902 points.

The Calloway County Pistol Club team, a new club, took fifth place with a total score of 2332. I think this is doing real well for a new club that had never fired as a team before.

Members of the club who shot on the team are, Jackie Fain, Jerry Maupin, Greg Parrish, and Robert Schumacher.

The Murray Police Department, whose members are James Witherspoon, Joe Pat Witherspoon, Max Morris, and Earl Stalls, placed sixth with a score of 2115.

Local News

Chuck Simons and Lloyd Boyd took a fishing trip last week and, according to them, they caught the limit. They even say they have a witness.

Chuck is the owner of Chuck's Music Center, and Lloyd is employed at the Postoffice as a mail carrier.

First Place Winner

H. E. Wilson and the trophy he won in the Pistol Match held last Saturday. Wilson shot a total score of 914 to take first place in the individual class.

Third Place Winner

Col. Lance E. Booth and the third place trophy he won in the individual class last Saturday. Booth shot a total score of 902 to take the trophy.

21 DIE IN LOS ANGELES 'COPTER CRASH—Sheriff's deputies and members of the coroner's office remove bodies and sift wreckage after a 28-passenger, twin-turbine helicopter crashed in Compton, a Los Angeles suburb, killing all 21 persons en route to Disneyland aboard the craft. Last May 22 another of the company's helicopters crashed, killing 23.

CENTENNIAL SCRAPBOOK Looking Back to 1868

54-D Congressional approval was given in 1868 to Post Office Department requirement that all mail deliverers wear uniforms. The Postmaster General was Alexander W. Randall of Wisconsin, who had a checked political career as a Whig and Democrat before conversion to a Republican.

He was the Lincoln minister to Rome until recalled abruptly in 1863 and shuffled into the position of Assistant Postmaster General. He replaced Postmaster General William Dennison after Johnson became President.

There is implication that the order placing postmen in uniforms had an aspect of political responsiveness to pressure from government contractors. With Army and Navy demobilized to a fraction of their numbers in 1865, apparel makers naturally had to seek substitutions for the outfitting of soldiers and sailors. Multiplied automation in weaving of textiles, and the new sewing machines had facilitated unprecedented expansion of ready-to-wear clothing manufacture during the war.

Roger Burlingame's history of American inventions, March of the Iron Men, credits sewing machines with creating the ready-made garment industry. Before the sixties, the majority of garments of men were cut and sewn at home, or made for the well-to-do by custom tailors. The ready-to-wear garments in commerce then were reconditioned second-hand apparel, or were "shops" (trade term for ill-fitting garb made of shoddy for seamen).

Scant attention had been paid pre-war to the comfort of clothes and shoes for soldiers in the ranks. But observant doctors induced recognition by Union commanding generals of how more utilitarian uniforms did matter in health and morale.

(For the first time ready-made underwear and socks were also issued as official items of uniform, with changes and washing required.)

The rule adopted in 1868 that brought new business to uniform-makers, pertained only to outer garments intended to be worn by soldiers and sailors. It was being carried (Free door-to-door delivery had been begun in 40 cities in mid-1865).

Preference was shown in injured Union veterans in appointments as carriers. Oddly, the new uniforms had a grayish color. A New York wit, insinuating that Philadelphia were backward in intelligence, professed to believe a report that the first postmen to wear the uniforms in Philadelphia were shot at as Confederate invaders.

He does.

Why do our servicemen buy U.S. Savings Bonds? Their reasons are the same as yours and mine: saving for the future, supporting freedom. And because they're fighting for freedom, too, maybe servicemen see the need more clearly than many of us. Buy Bonds. In more than one way, it makes you feel good.

vine that Russian secret police were arresting Czechoslovaks. The reports even gave the license plates of the cars being used by the secret police.

The Free Czech Radio broadcast said Cisar informed the extraordinary Communist Party Congress which met in Prague Thursday that he had escaped from his Soviet captivities. It said he also informed his friends in the party that he would maintain contact with them from his hideout.

Cisar, a secretary of the Communist Party Central Committee, was particularly popular among the country's students for his leading role in the reform movement launched by Dubcek.

Svoboda's surprise mission to Moscow marked the first public top level Russian-Czech meeting since Soviet and hard-line satellite forces invaded Czechoslovakia four days ago to crush its Communist reform regime.

After Svoboda left, clandestine "freedom" radios proclaimed the start of the general strike. There was no immediate account of its extent.

But at Waldhaus, on the Austrian-Czechoslovak frontier, a Czechoslovak border guard hung up sign reading "strike" and walked away.

"We are all on strike all over the country," he told a UPI correspondent. "We are not acting on higher orders. We are doing this on our own."

The guard and his comrades lowered the border barrier and, carrying their arms, disappeared into their border house.

In Prague, for the first time since the coming of Soviet, Polish, East Germans, Hungarians and Bulgarian forces, there was relative quiet in the streets. But the "freedom" radios and newspapers proclaimed defiance of the invaders and those "collaborators" they accused of submitting to Moscow demands for obedience. The voices of defiance stated loyalty to Communist Party First Secretary Alexander Dubcek and other reformers "interned" by the Russians.

With Svoboda to Moscow went both Dubcek supporters and his party foes, men accused by the "freedom" radios of being "traitors" who betrayed him to the Russians.

Flyer's Behavior Was Not Uniform

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: You always tell girls that men in uniform are O.K. I would have agreed with you a few years ago, but not any more. I learned my lessons with a guy in the Air Force. Boy, was he ever a wolf! I never saw a guy work so fast in all my life.

He was a perfect gentleman as long as he was in uniform, but the minute he got out of uniform he was a changed person.

ANNIE LOU

DEAR ANNIE: You never should have let him take his uniform off.

DEAR ABBY: We have two sons, 11 and 14. My husband opened a savings account for each of them when they were born, and he keeps putting money into it for their education, plus any money they get from their grandparents for birthdays, Christmas, etc.

However, every cent they get their hands on [allowance or money for doing odd jobs] they fritter away on foolishness, so their father laid down a rule. HALF of their allowances and HALF of all the money they earn has to go into the bank.

Now they sit on their duffs and refuse to do odd jobs to earn extra money. They say, "Daddy will only make us put it in the bank."

What can parents do about kids who have that attitude? We want to teach them to save. Have you or other parents any ideas?

STUMPED

DEAR STUMPED: Forcing a child to save makes saving a bitter experience. Let them "fritter away their allowances on foolishness." And let them "sit on their duffs" instead of doing odd jobs to earn extra money, and they will soon realize that they are cheating only themselves.

The best way to learn the value of money is to be without it for awhile.

DEAR ABBY: I would like to comment on letters appearing in your column in which people describe intolerable situations with in-laws, friends or neighbors who impose upon them. They ask you, "What shall I do?"

I used to be irritated with your stock answer: "TELL the person how you feel!"

I think in almost every case, the writer knows that this is the only solution, but he hopes you will have some magic words that will make it easier for him. Telling others how you feel doesn't necessarily mean telling them OFF.

I was faced with a very annoying situation. Some of our friends used to drop by our beach home every Sunday morning. They'd spend the entire day there, drinking our beer, eating our food, and messing up our shower with wet towels. Then one day I faced the issue and told them firmly, but quietly that the situation had gotten out of hand and in the future they were welcome only when invited. I didn't apologize for telling them. I just "up and told 'em," which wasn't easy. Now I'm sorry I didn't tell them sooner. At first they were a little hurt, but they got over it, and we are still good friends. They come only when invited and we like it that way.

I just wanted to say, "There are no magic words to put into people's mouths. From Dear Abby, or anybody else."

THANK YOU

My appreciation is so profound for your innumerable acts of friendship and helpfulness during my long illness, that I am made keenly aware of just how insufficient mere words become when attempting to convey my heartfelt thanks to countless friends, neighbors, working associates and family members who have done so much to help me through this trying time. However, it is my desire to make an effort to humbly acknowledge your thoughtfulness, and to tell you sincerely and gratefully that your interest in my well being — by the many things you have done to prove this — will be cherished by me forever.

On March 26, of this year, it became necessary for me to be hospitalized in Parkview Hospital, in Nashville. Since that time I have spent much of the time in Baptist Hospital, in Memphis, and in our local Calloway County Hospital, here in Murray. During all this time your constant deeds of kindness have lifted my spirits and made this easier for me and my family. So many cards and letters have been received and so many gifts sent to me that, by now, all these neighborly things so many of you have bestowed upon me have multiplied until it is impossible for me to write "thank-you-letters" to all of you. I know, too, that I have had the benefit of your prayers. For this I am also genuinely thankful.

At this time I would be remiss if I failed to tell you how much the other elected and appointed officials in our courthouse have done, and offered to do, to help my office deputies carry on in the Sheriff's Office during my absence; and my special thanks go to my office deputies Hardy Kelo, Curtis Willoughby and to my wife, Fannie Stubblefield, as well as to the entire courthouse-family. The doctors and the nurses and the entire hospital personnel have been most attentive, kind and understanding in every way. Experiences such as these cause us to truly understand the value of friends such as you!

May God bless all of you, my wonderful, wonderful friends.

On Top

The Bible, "God's holy word," is still the best seller, and most quoted book. From the original Greek and Hebrew this book has been translated into many languages.

Through the centuries men have devotedly studied and sought out the truth in the Bible. When one reads the Bible with an open mind, God's word is "as sharp as a two edged sword."

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.
